If K-LOVE were off the air I would feel cheated as a radio listener- my commute to work would be more stressful. In my area there are about 3 choices for Christian radio stations- K-LOVE is the ONLY one commercial free. It's on the air because people in my area support itwith their hard-earned dollars and feel strongly about the service it provides the community- public service announcements , sounding board for Christian topics; music with a message that doesn't include profanity and illicit morals...Our community needs a Christian voice that's not controlled by businesses or people with their own public agendas-I feel K-LOVE provides that voice.
